

User-Register

1. User opens the website
2. User clicks on register button
3. User enters his email and password
4. Appropriate msg is displayed if email already exists , password not strong ,etc
5. User enters his shipping address
6. Registration is complete and user is redirected to product view page

User-login

1. User opens the website
2. User clicks on login button
3. User enters his email and password
4. Appropriate msg is displayed if the authentication fails
5. login is complete and user is redirected to product view page

User-view product details

1. user is shown list of categories and products
2. products have a short one line description and a photo along with cost shown
3. user may either search for his needed product or choose one category
4. user may click on product to view its details such as photos , description , cost , discounts , delivery estimate time , etc
5. user may add it to cart and view another product

User – view , edit cart

1. user may click on cart button and will be directed to view cart page
2. user can see all items added to cart
3. user may remove the added products or add more quantity of existing items
4. user may click on purchase button to proceed to purchase

User pay for products

1. user can change his delivery information
2. user can choose a mode of payment
3. user will proceed to payment gateway
4. after successful purchase user will be shown the expected delivery date with confirmation message

User – check status of product

1. user can click on orders button to view purchased orders
2. a list containing all purchased products sorted according to decreasing order of purchase will be shown
3. a status will be shown along with product (delivered / out for delivery / yet to be delivered)
4. user may cancel a particular product give a feedback to merchant

User – cancel a product

1. user can click on cancel button for a particular purchased product which is not yet delivered
2. user will be shown a list of reasons for this cancellation
3. user may select one or write another reason for cancellation
4. after confirming cancel ,user will be shown a message of refunding the money to user

User – feedback

1. user may give feedback on a particular product from any page where product is visible
2. user can write a title and message body
3. the feedback will be sent to respective product merchant on clicking submit button

merchant-Register

1. merchant opens the website
2. merchant clicks on register button
3. merchant enters his email and password
4. Appropriate msg is displayed if email already exists , password not strong ,etc
5. merchant enters his shop address
6. Registration is complete and user is redirected to product add page

merchant-login

1. merchant opens the website
2. merchant clicks on login button
3. merchant enters his email and password
4. Appropriate msg is displayed if the authentication fails
5. login is complete and user is redirected to product add page

merchant- add product details

1. merchant can add products
2. one line detail , photos
3. other information about stock available ,price of product , discount etc
4. on clicking submit the product will be added to product list

merchant view orders

1. merchant can see all the products yet to delivered / delivered / out for delivery / cancelled
2. view payments for products
3. view total sales and other statistics
4. change status of a product
5. view or change quantity of a product

merchant – receive payment of products

1. when user pays for a product it is notified to the merchant and seen in the view orders page of merchant

2. the details of payment will be sent to merchant and merchant can verify those
3. updated order details , quantity details will be shown

merchant – feedback

1. on clicking feedbacks page the merchant can view the feedbacks from customers
2. it will be shown according to products
3. merchant can reply to customer s